Finchcocks: Past and Present

Case Study

International concert pianist, Richard Burnett and his wife, Katrina, acquired Finchcocks, a beautiful Georgian mansion in Kent as a home for their extensive collection of keyboard instruments. For further details on the museum, visit www.finchcocks.co.uk

TMI designed and produced the highly illustrated guidebook for the museum, which traces the history of Finchcocks, including the period when it was owned by the Legat Ballet School, the subsequent restoration of the building and gardens by the Burnett's during the 1970's and comprehensive details on the wonderful collection of keyboard instruments.
