

Leaflets

Client

The National Trust

Project

Various

Work Undertaken

Design, production

Leaflets

Case Study

The leaflets shown below, produced for both individual National Trust properties and the central office, illustrate just one way in which the identity of the charity has remained consistent and yet at the same time individual through, adhering to the graphic standards of the design.

